Luxury Villa Living

The Chalet

In the heart of Gstaad, directly on the famous Promenade, The Chalet at Fouquet's Gstaad offers an exceptional private Alpine residence. Spanning an impressive 1,500 square metres across five floors, this extraordinary retreat places guests at the centre of the resort. Yet, behind its elegant interiors, it offers a remarkable sense of privacy and tranquillity. The Chalet welcomes up to 20 guests across eight beautifully appointed suites and an additional bedroom with four single beds. Each suite combines timeless elegance with beautiful materials and soothing Alpine views. An elevator serves the different floors, while generous living spaces create an inviting setting for families and groups.

DESCRIPTION

An Exceptional Family Retreat

Designed for memorable stays with family and friends, The Chalet brings together generous accommodation and refined Alpine style. Eight suites offer private bathrooms and dressing rooms, while a further bedroom provides four single beds and additional bathroom facilities.

Throughout the residence, two expansive living rooms create welcoming spaces to gather. Fireplaces add warmth and character, while terraces and balconies offer panoramic views across the surrounding Alps. Whether enjoying a quiet morning or gathering after a day on the slopes, guests can make the most of the chalet's exceptional setting.

A Private Spa and Wellness Sanctuary

An entire floor is dedicated to relaxation and wellbeing. Spanning 260 square metres, the private spa offers an impressive collection of facilities, including an indoor swimming pool, jacuzzi, cold plunge pool, Finnish sauna, hammam and snow shower.

After a day exploring the mountains, guests can unwind in the tranquil surroundings or enjoy a personalised treatment. The private treatment room offers bespoke body and facial experiences featuring the prestigious Augustinus Bader skincare house. Expert spa practitioners are also available for four hours each day.

For those who prefer to stay active, the chalet has its own fitness room. Equipped for cardio and strength training, it provides space to maintain a workout routine throughout the stay. Guests can also arrange the services of a private trainer.

Dining and Entertaining

The Chalet offers an exceptional setting for private dining and special celebrations. A dedicated private chef, trained in Michelin-starred establishments, creates personalised menus to suit each occasion. Meanwhile, the professional kitchen provides everything needed to deliver an outstanding culinary experience.

Two spacious living rooms lead towards a private bar, where guests can enjoy creative cocktails and relaxed evenings together. The panoramic terrace adds another beautiful setting for entertaining, with views across Gstaad and the surrounding mountains.

For evenings that call for something more, the chalet also features its own private cinema and nightclub with bar. From intimate dinners to lively celebrations, the residence offers an impressive range of spaces for every occasion.

Tailored Service and Exclusive Amenities

A dedicated team looks after every detail throughout the stay. The service includes a private chef, butler, property manager and concierge, who can help arrange experiences both within the chalet and across Gstaad.

A private driver is available for eight hours each day, while the concierge team supports guests before and during their visit. Spa practitioners can also provide treatments for four hours daily, adding another layer of personal attention.

In winter, the private ski room makes access to the slopes simple and convenient. On arrival, the team handles luggage and round-trip airport transfers, helping guests settle in with ease. The hotel also offers valet parking and a shuttle service to Gstaad village centre.

During summer, guests can enjoy the hotel's electric bicycles and explore the surrounding Alpine landscape at their own pace.

The Best of Gstaad

With its prestigious position directly on the Promenade, The Chalet places Gstaad's boutiques, restaurants and village atmosphere right on the doorstep. Guests can enjoy the energy of this celebrated Alpine destination, then return to the privacy and comfort of their own residence.

Combining an extraordinary private spa, exceptional entertainment spaces and attentive five-star service, The Chalet at Fouquet’s Gstaad offers a truly distinctive way to experience the Swiss Alps.
