DESCRIPTION

The beautiful property is marked by elegant décor and stunning architecture which maximizes on space and utilizes the verdant tropical surroundings to enhance the natural ambiance of the villa. The living spaces and the bedrooms all provide a comfortable and luxurious atmosphere for your friends and family. The villa is perfect for private events like weddings etc. as it has expansive gardens out front!

Arnalaya Beach House boasts of five, air-conditioned bedroom suites that all have one thing in common and that is a magnificent and enchanting view of the ocean or the rice fields of Canggu. The bedrooms all lead to a private veranda with armchairs from where guests can see the ocean with its waves crashing on the shores, enjoy a cup of tea and relish the peaceful and tranquil ambiance. All the rooms are furnished with king-sized beds, sitting areas, and a Colonial-style décor.

Each of the five bedrooms has an en-suite bathroom that has either a shower area or a freestanding bathtub amongst other amenities.

A breath-taking 20-metre swimming pool featuring an infinity-edge looks out at the ocean glistening in the distance and meets the horizon, so you can even catch the sunset right from the comfort of the villa. The gardens are manicured and well-taken care of as well as the trimmed bushes and trees exude a luxe and well-kept vibe so that you know you are in a place which cares for your comfort. Sun chairs are kept on the timber pool deck, from where you can gaze out at the endless waters and sunbathe.

Beside the pool, you will find the outdoor pavilion which has a large dining area for ten or more people, a comfortable sitting area as well as a kitchenette with BBQ equipment. Another great feature at Arnalaya is the full-sized tennis court, the kind used at the Australian Grand Slam!

The open-sided living and dining pavilion located on the upper floor is a remarkable sight to behold as it has been designed with quality material and an aesthetically pleasing design. The dining area consists of a ten-seater dining table which is placed right in the middle. The room is decorated with traditional objects and artefacts and a wall separates the dining area with the living room. The fully-equipped kitchen is modern in its make and comprises all western appliances.

On the other side of the wall, there is the cozy and warm living area with glass doors leading to a veranda that offers great views of the neighboring regions. The room is furnished with additionally comfortable sofas and several armchairs for a homely nook to retire to with your loved ones. Another living area is found beside the tennis court which is again furnished with plush couches, a flat-screen TV, and a couple of round tables with dining chairs.

The villa also features a multi-purpose gym and a spa for guests to relax in and indulge in massages and spa therapies.
