DESCRIPTION

Set within 6000 square meters of beautiful tropical beachfront gardens and a 14-metre swimming pool just steps away from the sand, makes Atas Ombak the perfect wedding venue and the ideal luxury villa for extended family gatherings.

There are five bedrooms at Atas Ombak, three in the main building (two of which, including the master, are on ground level) and two in the ocean pavilion located to the far side of the grounds, close to the beach. Each of the five bedrooms are furnished with king-size beds (one of which converts to twins) and equipped with both air-conditioning and ceiling fans.

Located on the ground floor of the main building, the master bedroom boasts a dressing area and a huge ensuite open air bathroom featuring a sunken bathtub, separate shower and even a private plunge pool. The sliding glass doors open to a sheltered terrace, offering gorgeous views.

Two more bedrooms are situated in the main building, one on the ground floor and the second is above. Each bedroom has its own terrace, dressing area, and ensuite bathrooms.

Close to the beach, the two rooms in the separate ocean pavilion have a cool beach vibe and offer panoramic views of the Indian Ocean and a shared open-sided living area. Plantation shutters behind the bed reveal ensuite open-air bathrooms with black terrazzo bathtubs and alfresco showers.

The 14 meter oceanfront pool is ideal for swimming laps, while also providing a shallow section for children.

You can spend your days on the deck lounges watching the towering waves break onto the sand or enjoy a massage under the shade of the relaxation balé. Kids can run around in the sprawling garden dotted with lotus ponds and frangipani trees. And if the kids are still bursting with energy, take advantage of the complimentary Canggu Club membership where they can enjoy the Splash Waterpark, tennis, squash courts and other facilities.

At the heart of Villa Atas Ombak is the huge open-sided thatched living and entertainment pavilion. Furnished with oversized bamboo sofas piled high with cushions, it's the perfect spot to relax with a cocktail and enjoy the cool sea breeze while watching the exceptional colors at sunset. A marble-topped dining table with comfy batik-cushioned rattan armchairs encourages social breakfasts and candlelit dinners. Inside the main villa building there is a second, more formal dining area, with long table and ten comfortable armchairs where you can enjoy gourmet meals prepared by the staff. In the main building, the indoor living area is furnished with an L-shaped leather sofa set in front of an antique cabinet housing the TV, DVD player, offering a relaxed place to watch a movie or just chill out. The sliding glass doors opens onto lotus ponds and more blissful ocean views.

 Due to its strategic location, you may hear the noise from the nearest beach club, Café del Mar
