DESCRIPTION

Areas are appointed with predominantly beautifully crafted dark and woven wood furnishings and fixtures with a few modern and chic pieces. Amenities are essentially of hotel and resort grade - to guarantee each and every guest's pure pleasure and indulgence. Baan Leelawadee, truly, extends to you an exquisite escape amidst a coastal atmosphere.

The villa has four air-conditioned bedrooms. The master bedroom - in a single pavilion adjoining the living pavilion - has a four-post and draped, king-sized bed, as well as a dedicated bathroom with a fitted bathtub and indoor plus outdoor rain showers. The master bedroom has direct access to the infinity pool. Two guest rooms share one pavilion. One bedroom has twin beds, and the other bedroom has a double bed. Both bedrooms have dedicated bathrooms with rain showers. Another guest room - in a two-storey bedroom pavilion - also has a king-sized bed, as well as a dedicated bathroom with a rain shower. This bedroom opens out to a balcony with 180-degree views of the seascape.

Alongside the white sand beach is the 17-meter infinity pool. After your morning swim in the sea, jump into its mesmerizing, glassy fresh waters because you surely just can't get enough of your element. From the water, you can stretch out on woven wood pool beds partially shaded by large umbrellas on the poolside wooden deck. Or, sit back on the cushioned, woven wood sofa or day beds under the shade of the poolside sala.

At the villa's semi-open and breezy living pavilion - around large sofas facing a wall-mounted, widescreen TV - you can all catch shows you've been following closely. Or, go on a marathon of your can't-get-enough-of movies. Joined by a pergola covered stone pathway that crosses a pond is the dining pavilion with its long, wooden table that accommodates 10. Here, you can all indulge in authentic local specialties - as well as Western staples - masterfully prepared by the in-house chef at the fully-equipped, ultra-modern kitchen perpendicular to the dinner table. The counter which borders the kitchen can also be used as a bar for meals, brews or mixes.

Baan Leelawadee is based right on Bo Phut Beach. Swim to your heart's content then stroll along its two-kilometer stretch. At some point, you'll stumble upon Fisherman's Village where you'll find historic buildings as well as - if, by chance, it's a Wednesday - the weekly Walking Street.
