Borstein Apartment

Nestled in the heights of the splendid private mansion bordering the Trocadero, this vast duplex pays homage to the eternal charm of the Parisian way of life, with its terrace facing the Eiffel Tower, its attic-style architecture, its romantic roof openings and its arched windows overlooking the slate-grey roofs sparkling in the sun.

DESCRIPTION

The bedrooms with ensuite bathrooms occupy the first floor, entirely dedicated to the night. From there, a honey-colored stone staircase leads up to a huge living area that includes a lounge, dining room and kitchen. Everywhere, soft neutral tones combined with sleek design lines create an elegant and comfortable atmosphere. But the jewel in the crown of this quintessentially Parisian place is its gorgeous private open-air terrace offering a breathtaking view of the Place du Trocadéro. In the evening, the Eiffel Tower seems so close that you get the impression that it is shining just for you!
