DESCRIPTION

Located on the top of a hill, in the quiet neighbourhood of Siesta, the villa offers stunning seaside views of the south of the island, creating breathtaking memories of sunset and sunrise that will last a lifetime.

Can Rudayla has recently undergone a multi-million euro renovation to make it one of the most stunning villas on the island. Minimal architecture design complements stylish Italian furniture to ensure an idyllic laid back luxurious destination for you to create Balearic memories with your friends and family.

Architecturally designed to highlight the beauty of the Mediterranean coastline, the house welcomes space, air and natural light with minimalist style. Decorated to the high standard you'd expect in such an elegant villa, there are warm tones and natural stone throughout, in keeping with the Ibiza heritage of understated elegance.

With 4 spacious king bedrooms, 4 Zaha Hadid designed bathrooms, a large living room and open plan kitchen area the house is ideal for relaxing, socialising and dining. There is direct access to the terrace on one side and entrance to the outdoor lounge and pool area on the other.

There is a heated pool with an incredible sea view. Great for relaxing, unwinding and enjoying the view, or simply for keeping little ones entertained. A spacious rooftop terrace filled with lounge seating and furniture gives you a stunning space to relax on an evening with mountain and sea views.
