DESCRIPTION

Surrounded by immaculate fairways, ocean views, and lush subtropical landscapes, Casa Dulce offers an unparalleled retreat designed for golf lovers, families, and relaxation seekers alike.

Whether you're here to play championship golf, soak up Tenerife's sun-drenched charm, or enjoy an unforgettable holiday in a private villa that combines comfort with elegance, Casa Dulce delivers on every level—literally and figuratively.

Spread across three beautifully designed floors, Casa Dulce provides the perfect balance between privacy and togetherness, making it ideal for multi-generational families or groups of friends.

On the main floor, you are welcomed by a gracious and light-filled entrance hall that sets the tone for the villa's refined ambiance. This level hosts five generously appointed bedrooms, including four elegant suites, each with its own en-suite bathroom, and a fifth double room featuring twin beds—perfect for younger guests or additional friends and family.

All bedrooms are thoughtfully designed with high-end finishes, soft textures, and calming color palettes, ensuring a restful night's sleep in pure comfort. Large windows invite in natural light and open out onto tranquil garden or terrace views.

Venture up to the top floor, and you'll find the true soul of Casa Dulce—an open-concept living and entertaining spacebathed in sunshine and framed by panoramic views of the Atlantic Ocean and La Gomera, Tenerife's sister island.

This level includes:

- A sleek, modern designer kitchen equipped with premium appliances
- An elegant living room and indoor dining space for shared moments
- A chill-out terrace complete with comfortable outdoor furnishings
- A stunning heated infinity pool, offering peaceful swims day or night
- A barbecue area with outdoor dining, ideal for sunset feasts and open-air entertaining

Whether you're enjoying breakfast at sunrise or sipping wine as the sun dips below the horizon, this level is designed for connection, celebration, and relaxation.

On the ground level, Casa Dulce offers a range of additional amenities to elevate your stay. A private garage houses your personal golf cart, available for guests to use while exploring the expansive resort or heading to the nearby clubhouse, beach, or restaurants.

This floor also includes:

- A games room, featuring a classic billiards table—perfect for casual tournaments and rainy day fun
- A fully equipped laundry room for extended stays or added convenience
- Direct access to landscaped gardens and peaceful walking paths throughout the resort

Unique among its peers, Casa Dulce also features a private pétanque (boules) court on the main floor terrace—an invitation for lighthearted games with friends and family, ideally with a cool drink in hand and laughter in the air. It's just one of many thoughtful touches that elevate this villa from luxurious to memorable.

True to its name, Casa Dulce embodies “the sweet life.” It’s where luxury meets leisure, where privacy meets convenience, and where every day unfolds at your pace—from morning swims and afternoon naps to twilight dinners beneath the stars.

Located within one of Europe’s most exclusive resort communities, and surrounded by award-winning golf courses, fine dining, spa services, and a secluded beach, Casa Dulce offers more than a holiday—it offers a lifestyle of ease and indulgence.

Whether you're here for a week of golf, a celebration with loved ones, or a peaceful escape from the world, Casa Dulce invites you to unwind, reconnect, and enjoy the finest that Tenerife has to offer.
