DESCRIPTION

From the Tuscan-inspired architecture with terracotta roofs, to the stone staircases and Brazilian hardwood floors, to designer kitchens with Bon Vivant appliances. And the rich materials aren't the only well-thought out part of Casa Luna home life. Each villa has an intuitive floor plan for the greatest enjoyment of its vacationing guests. The family room and kitchen are the centre of villa life with private retreats for multiple couples or different members of the family branching out from there. From French doors leading out to shaded terraces and views with ocean breezes to climate-control, lighting, and audio features throughout, everything has been thought of to bring the greatest experience to the fortunate few who visit here.
