DESCRIPTION

Celadon House has five bedrooms, two of them on the lower level, while the other three are on the upper level of the home. All the bedrooms have ensuite washrooms. The bedrooms on the lower level have private terraces that overlook the poolside. The master bedroom on the second floor has a private terrace with incredible views of the sea and palm trees. The other two rooms on the upper level have twin bedrooms and are furnished in traditional style giving the Swahili feel. The master suite room has an additional staircase that leads you to the rooftop terrace offering panoramic views of the ocean side and tropical surroundings.

Celadon House has one of the best views of the cape. The infinity edge pool faces the ocean blue waters, best to begin your day with a swim. There are multiple levelled terraces in the home so you can sit outdoors and enjoy the views for a long time. There is a rooftop terrace on the uppermost level which has a seating arrangement, to enjoy your drinks and dinner soaking in the views of the tropical surroundings. The home also has a stunning garden pavilion with tall trees. The gorgeous verandah also provides comfortable seating.

Two large antique wooden doors make the entrance of the Celadon House, inviting you to the contemporary design of its interiors. It is a 3-storeyed home. The living room and two bedrooms are on the lower level of the home. The living area opens to the beautiful frame of the infinity pool between the side pillars of the structure. The architecture of the home emanates a traditional Swahili feel. There are internal stairs that lead to the upper floors, each of which boasts a large terrace. There is a fully equipped kitchen and staff quarters within the home. Besides the poolside, there is a separate massage room as well. The entire villa is air-conditioned and WiFi is available.
