DESCRIPTION

The main living area occupies the uppermost floor, providing wonderful views over the rooftops to the snow-capped mountains. Take the lift to the top and you'll discover a bright lounge with modular sofa seating around a blazing wood fire and a stylish dining room with bar area and an impressive wine wall. Both open onto a romantic rooftop terrace that delivers wonderful mountain views.

At ground level, alongside the boot room, Chalet Atlas boasts wonderful spa facilities, including an eight-metre swimming pool, wet room, sauna, steam room and an indoor hot tub. If you still have aching muscles after all that, there's a treatment room so you can book massages or other treatments.

This lower level also boasts a private cinema room, complete with red velvet cinema seating.

Sandwiched between the living space and the spa are two floors of bright, elegant bedrooms. Each of the six double rooms has a stylish en-suite bathroom and several enjoy a private balcony or terrace.

Chalet Atlas is perfectly located to enjoy the best of St Anton. With awards under its belt for best ski resort in the world and best ski resort in the Alps for advanced skiers, this area is famed for excellent snow conditions and its legendary off-piste. Experienced skiers will love the challenge, especially in the Galzig area, but there is something for everyone, with 305km of varied terrain across Ski Arlberg.
