DESCRIPTION

The ultimate luxury chalet Bastidons overlooks the valley, with stunning panoramic views of the surrounding peaks of the Bellecôte glacier. The contemporary design, sleek and cozy brings a unique ambiance that reminds you that you are in Courchevel.

The living room is very cozy and was designed by architect Christophe Tollemer, as all three chalets of Vollière have, which were built in a spirit which is unique to each of these ultimate luxury chalets.

The fireplace made of grey stone and light wood warms the room during the long winter evenings while the large convertibles sofas and armchairs of wood and beige fabric are the gathering place for the occupants of the chalet after a day of skiing.

The numerous furniture, lamps and other decorative elements were custom made ??for the ultimate luxury chalet Bastidons, like the large oval wooden table in the dining room, the Savoyard bench in the lounge decorated in cowhide but especially the huge wrought iron metal branch that grows from the bottom of the chalet to the full height and welcomes a porcelain birds aviary.

The level of performance and service of the chalet Bastidons is a true five star refuge for up to 12 people. The master bedroom of the chalet represents what is best in Courchevel: a blending of linen and wood covers the walls, furniture is made to measure - the room houses a lounge, a bathroom with shower and bath as well as a stylish dressing in which the purists will appreciate all of the black velvet hangers.

This ultimate luxury chalet is also equipped with a private ski room and a wellness area with pool, spa and gym.
