DESCRIPTION

Chalet Bois de l'Abbaye is one of four unique chalets located in the hamlet of Bois du Praz. The chalet is ideally located just 50 metres from the centre of the village and 200 metres from the gondola which whisks you straight up to Courchevel 1850. Set over four levels, served by a lift, the chalet is modern in style with stone and wood cladding.

On the top floor of the chalet is a spacious open-plan living and dining area which is divided by a central fireplace. Doors open onto a terrace with views over the valley. Meals can be prepared in the semi-open fitted kitchen and enjoyed at the breakfast bar or around the dining table.

Chalet Bois de l'Abbaye accommodates 12 guests across three en-suite bedrooms and a family suite consisting of a master bedroom and two sets of bunk beds sleeping four children.

On your return from the slopes, the chalet's wellness area will be a welcome sight. Dive into the indoor swimming pool and unwind in the sauna. Other facilities include a ski room with boot heaters, a garage and a laundry room.
