DESCRIPTION

Luxury Ski Chalet in the Dolomites with Private Spa and Mountain Views

This luxury ski chalet is located in Plan de Corones in the heart of the Dolomites. Positioned at an altitude of over 1,000 metres, the chalet is just a few minutes' walk from the ski slopes. As a result, it offers direct access to one of Europe's most prestigious ski regions.

Contemporary Alpine Chalet with Spa and Eco-Luxury Design

This 530m² chalet is spread across four levels in a traditional village setting. In addition, it combines refined alpine design with modern comfort and sustainable living.

The interiors are crafted using natural wood, eco-friendly materials, and soft finishes. Therefore, the chalet delivers a warm and authentic mountain atmosphere.

Modern technology enhances the stay, including an elevator, underfloor heating, fibre optic WiFi, satellite TV, and a sound system.

The property also holds a CasaClima Nature certification, confirming high standards of energy efficiency, acoustic comfort, and sustainable construction.

Private Wellness Area with Indoor Pool and Sauna

The wellness area is designed for complete relaxation after a day on the slopes. In addition, it is built entirely with natural materials.

Facilities include a Finnish and bio sauna, a relaxation area, and an indoor pool with counter-current swimming system and chromotherapy.

As a result, the chalet offers a private spa experience within the home.

Luxury Villa Living

Spacious Alpine Living with Four-Level Layout

The chalet is arranged across four floors, designed for both privacy and shared living.

The second floor features a large open-plan living area with a fully equipped kitchen, central island, dining table for twelve guests, fireplace, and lounge area. In addition, it opens onto a balcony with village views.

The ground floor includes the wellness area, laundry facilities, guest bathroom, and two en-suite bedrooms with terrace access.

The first floor features four additional bedrooms, including a master suite. Each bedroom includes an en-suite bathroom, TV, and balcony or terrace access.

The lower ground floor includes a garage, ski room, elevator access, and storage facilities. Therefore, the layout is ideal for ski-in lifestyle convenience.

Six Bedrooms Designed for Comfort and Flexibility

The chalet offers six bedrooms, each designed with comfort and alpine style in mind.

All bedrooms include en-suite bathrooms and flexible twin or double configurations. In addition, several rooms open onto balconies or terraces.

The sixth bedroom includes a bunk-style layout, making it suitable for children or one adult guest.

As a result, the property is ideal for families and multi-generational ski groups.

Outdoor Living with Mountain Access and Alpine Activities

The chalet offers direct access to one of the most renowned ski regions in the Dolomites.

In addition, guests can enjoy a wide range of year-round activities including skiing, snowboarding, hiking, cycling, and via ferrata routes.

Nearby routes include Passo Furcia, Passo Gardena, Passo Sella, and Passo Pordoi.

Furthermore, guests can access the Dolomiti Superski area with over 100 kilometres of slopes.

The surrounding natural parks, including Fanes-Senes-Braies and Puez-Odle, offer hiking, sledding, and family-friendly outdoor experiences.

Sustainable Luxury Chalet in South Tyrol

This chalet is one of the most exclusive alpine properties in South Tyrol. It combines luxury wellness facilities, eco-certified design, and direct access to world-class ski terrain.

Moreover, its sustainable construction, spa amenities, and modern alpine architecture make it ideal for high-end ski holidays and wellness retreats.
