DESCRIPTION

Brought to being by the famous architect Jean-Michel Wilmotte, this contemporary chalet displays an audacious and modern architecture for the renowned village of Courchevel 1850: a dark toned wood covers the facades and contrasts with the traditional grey stones that compose the dining room. The superb design and gracious décor of this luxurious chalet are highlighted by steel surfaces and associations of noble and original materials.

Enter the living room and accede to the double height ceiling and the impressive white panel laying over the large fireplace. Settle by the fire or dive into a good novel whilst enjoying the light brought by the immense floor-to-ceiling window of this spacious living room. You will like to gather in the room and share pleasant family moments.

In the over-equipped professional kitchen, the chef will work his way to providing you with tasteful breakfasts before you make your way to the slopes of the world's largest skiing domain. Enjoy appetizing dinners by the immense heated terrace surrounded by pin trees. By night, savour the flavourful dishes of the chalet chef, all gathered around the square table of the dining room. The fireplace will be appreciated during long winter nights. Think of nothing, the staff of the chalet will manage everything: housekeeper, cleaner, chalet manager, butler and chauffeur will be at your disposal during the entire duration of your stay.

Have a taste of serenity and peacefulness in the dedicated spaces of the Greystone chalet. On your way back to the chalet, you will appreciate diving in the boiling water of the SPA, lounge in the dry heat of the sauna or the mist of the hammam whilst listening to some of your favourite tunes of the hi-fi. For the toughest, continue your training on the equipment of the fitness room, whilst watching a movie: effort and comfort at the same time.

This beautiful Chalet Prestige is a gem of softness: wooden furniture, light colours and lights illuminate the 6 en suite bedrooms for the 12 guests of Greystone Chalet. The master bedroom, with the upscale equipment of its white marble bathroom, its refined furniture and lights, will delight its guests during their stay. Quietude will be the watchword of the other double or twin bedrooms.

Everyone will find a space that fits them best: a desk with an Apple computer to finish the waiting work, a TV lounge and a playroom for the youngest to watch their favourite cartoons, or a library to fall in novelesque stories and fantasies that will make you travel without leaving the chalet. Your favourite room will be without a doubt the cinema, where you will lay in the red velvet chairs, and watch with your family a movie.
