DESCRIPTION

Leave your boots to warm in the boot room, then head straight to spa to recharge. Here, you can relax in the 7.5 metre pool, soothe those tired legs in the Hammam, or book a treatment in the massage room. Or perhaps you'd prefer to head out to the terrace to soak in the jacuzzi?

As with the spa, there is a contemporary feel to the main living space at Chalet Ottavia. Vast windows offer magnificent mountain views and the pared-back style has an easy-going elegance.

Cosy sofa seating offers an opportunity to take in the mountain panorama or snuggle in front of the fire. Beyond this, there is dining seating for your whole party and an intimate but well-stocked bar. After dinner, relax in the private cinema room or head out to the wraparound balcony that overlooks the tops of tall pines, a breath-taking view of the famous V of Val d'Isère beyond the treetops.

Each of the six elegant bedrooms can be configured as either a twin room or a double, offering flexible accommodation options. With a sophisticated colour palette, sumptuous linens and sleek, contemporary en-suite bathrooms, these rooms are serenely comfortable.

The exclusive Le Cret enclave in which Chalet Ottavia sits is perfectly located for enjoying the slopes of Val d'Isère from the centre or from La Daille. The resort's boutiques, restaurants and bars are but a short drive away.
