DESCRIPTION

Chalet Palou blends perfectly into the alpine landscape, as it is essentially made of high-quality light wood, capturing the light and offering us a very bright chalet. The brightness of the Palou chalet comes above all from its large bay windows on several levels. You will be captivated by the panoramic view that the living room offers on Méribel and all its valley.

The many fabrics that make up the chalet, from thick curtains to the sofa, but also the household linen, have been selected by an interior designer to ensure the best possible quality, while offering a perfect harmony with the decoration.

The 12 guests that can be accommodated in the Palou chalet will be divided into 4 double bedrooms as well as the master bedroom. Each bedroom is tastefully decorated and has its own private bathroom. In most of them, you will be able to admire the panoramic view and enjoy the sun from their balconies.

After a beautiful day of sunny skiing, nothing beats relaxing in the indoor jacuzzi and sauna. Chalet Palou also has a leisure area with a television room and a high-end audio system. The chalet, perfectly adapted to the practice of winter sports, has a ski room equipped with a ski cupboard and boot warmer.

A perfect chalet for a family or a group of friends wishing to spend a stay in a high level of equipment and comfort, while enjoying the Trois Vallées ski area and a breath-taking panoramic view.
