DESCRIPTION

This design-led property has an upside-down layout, with bedrooms on the ground floor and a spacious open-plan living area on the first floor, to make the most of the breath-taking sea views.

Large windows frame the water at every opportunity, and draw you to the ocean beyond. Yet, unlike the exterior, which is streamlined and modern, there's a warmth and tranquillity that flows throughout inside, encouraging blissful relaxation.

The sitting room has a peaceful palette of soft blues and neutral tones, which are both calm and inviting. There's a wood burning stove to keep you company on wintery nights, and a TV if you tire of the view!

The library, with its beautifully presented, covetable collection of books, provides the perfect excuse to while away the hours. If you look carefully, you'll discover the secret bathroom, hidden behind one of the bookshelves, offering possibly the best view of any room in the house.

The kitchen is extremely well-equipped with a vast, amply-stocked pantry, and a Lacanche range which makes cooking an enjoyable task. There's also a simple, yet elegant dining area with panoramic views.

On the ground floor, discover four sumptuous king-size bedrooms (one of which can be split into two single beds), and three bathrooms. Each room has its own private terrace and views across the sea or garden. There's also an internal lift, and a fully accessible wet room.

The owner, an artist, has a studio tucked away the ground floor too, and many of her beautiful pieces are exhibited throughout the property.

The outside space has also been thoughtfully designed, offering a variety of places to eat, drink, and relax depending on the time of day and temperature. The Derek Jarmanesque garden provides the perfect spot for sundowners and the comfortable seating area with BBQ will tempt you to dine al fresco, making the most of a balmy summer's evening.

The breath-taking sea views coupled with the sensitively curated design, provides an exquisite setting for a truly unforgettable coastal escape.
