DESCRIPTION

Upon entering Dene Court you will be taken back by the open concept and grand high ceilings, the living room features large doors which open out to the pool deck and gardens allowing for spectacular views and wonderful Caribbean breezes.

The property boasts a very unique feature in that it has two master bedrooms. The first master is located on the ground floor of the residence and has a wonderful private garden and patio perfect for reading on a morning. The second master is located on the top floor and also features a private patio which can also open to the larger upstairs patio allowing families to be together. All the bedrooms have their own unique feel, each featuring en-suite bathrooms, air conditions and garden views.

Dene Court also comes with a wonderful compliment of staff ready to make your Barbados Vacation that much more special. Donna the onsite Chef is a master of Barbadian and International cuisine and is praised by past guest for her creativity and flare. Donna is excellent at creating desserts and pastries, a perfect way to finish off your meal. Donna will gladly prepare snacks and beverages which you can take to the beach during the day.

With spacious living and dining areas as well as an extensive pool deck, Dene Court is a perfect place for your next family vacation. The property can also be used for weddings and various functions, allowing guest the use of the garden and common areas.
