DESCRIPTION

The main living space, or Great Room has floor to ceiling height sliding glass walls that open out onto the stunning terraces overlooking the ocean. Modern, relaxed sofas combine to create a soft, central meeting point flanked to both the south and the north by stunning ocean vistas.

There is a media suite, perfect for the family or large group of friends to recline and be entertained amidst the state of the art audio visual equipment, comfortable seating and bright, modern styling.

There are 2 stylish pools, the larger infinity swimming pool facing north and the smaller spa style plunge pool with jacuzzi faces south and both are surrounded by natural stone paved areas.

This ridge top villa delivers fabulous panoramic views across the island of Isle a Quatre and the ocean beyond.

The Caribbean architects have designed a property that not only complies with the highest standards of Caribbean eco design but have incorporated the following:

Photovoltaic energy has been harnessed to heat the villa water and provide electricity
Rainwater will be collected and stored where it will be filtered and reused
Natural stone and wood have been used throughout the villas construction

The bedrooms feature luxurious walk in showers finished with marble, sumptuous views and each suite has a private terrace. Chrome finish taps, cream finish cedar wood cabinets, natural stone countertops and a separate bathtub and walk in shower are present in all 5 bathrooms. The 5 bedrooms all have air conditioning, luxury bed linens and flat screen televisions.

Gingerlily has a full gourmet kitchen fitted with the latest appliances and catering equipment, cedar wood cabinets with painted antique finish, satin finish handles and granite worktops.
