DESCRIPTION

Tucked into the forested slopes of Whistler's highest-elevation neighborhood, Kadenwood Skyhaus is a sanctuary of elevated mountain living. Hidden from street view and framed by towering evergreens, this modern interpretation of the classic mountain chalet offers true ski-in/ski-out access, a private gondola to Creekside Village, and direct backyard access to some of the best skiing, snowboarding, and mountain biking in North America.

Step inside and be welcomed by over 4,000 square feet of refined alpine luxury, where Scandinavian-inspired design meets the soul of a classic mountain cabin. Natural Cherrywood finishes, a sculptural hanging fireplace, and floor-to-ceiling windows frame uninterrupted views of Whistler's snow-dusted peaks, enveloping you in comfort after a day on the slopes.

The open-concept layout flows effortlessly from a fully equipped chef's kitchen to a generous dining area and out onto an expansive deck made for lingering, perfect for a round of après-ski drinks. Whether you're gathering with family for a festive dinner or soaking in the sunken hot tub as snow dusts the trees around you, every angle of this home is designed to elevate your alpine experience. Here, each day begins with fresh tracks and ends with fireside moments beneath vaulted ceilings and ends wrapped in the glow of the fire and the comfort of togetherness.

Bedrooms & Bathrooms Main level

- Serene primary suite features a California king bed, flat-screen TV, and forest views through large picture windows.
