DESCRIPTION

This luxury villa gets its name from the trees nearby - Kelapa means coconut in the Malay language. Designed to blend into its spectacular surroundings, this glass house appears to float above the hill slopes. The ceiling and decking are clad in local Balau wood, as a nod to the villa's tropical context.

You'll love the stylish living and dining areas, which are tastefully furnished with B&B Italia, Poltrona Frau and more designer brands. An outdoor dining area and kitchen are a perfect venue for barbecue meals, which can be staffed by a private chef upon request. Plus, enjoy the Alfred-like butler services at this fully-staffed property; the villa team will faithfully attend to your needs throughout your stay.

Seek out the spa and steam room, or the entertainment den in the basement for pure relaxation. A private gym fitted with Technogym equipment connects to a sleek workspace; perfect for digital nomads to plug in, when they need to. The villa's four spacious bedrooms each connect to their own ensuite bathroom, ensuring perfect sanctuaries for blissful slumbers.
