DESCRIPTION

La Danse du Soleil has five bungalows in the heart of a lush tropical garden and connected by stone-cut paths.

Here, wood, stone and nature are the essence of the property.
The main villa consists of a large living room and a full-equipped kitchen, open onto the covered terrace.

The terrace is equipped with a small kitchen, a large dining table and an outdoor lounge, all based around the long heated pool around 28°C.

Two bungalows, one of them is the master bedroom, are located on the left side of the main villa, and each one has a small private terrace.
The third bedroom is connected to the living room and offers a direct access to the garden.

The fourth and fifth bedrooms are located at the rear of the villa. These are two bungalows connected by a small kitchen equipped with a mini fridge, a coffee machine, and two plates of baking. They share a small swimming pool on the common terrace area.

A massage room is located in another small bungalow situated in the middle of the vegetation.

Downstairs, there is an air-conditioned gym equipped with high technology equipment.
This very private villa with incomparable charm is ideal for holidays with friends or family.
