DESCRIPTION

A Private Villa for Groups and Retreats

Unawatuna Villa is a luxury beachfront villa in Unawatuna, offering a private and peaceful retreat along Sri Lanka's southern coast. The villa is let on an exclusive-use basis; therefore, it suits yoga retreats, families, groups of friends, or colleagues seeking privacy. In addition, guests enjoy full access to the house, tropical gardens, and outdoor swimming pool. This creates an intimate environment that supports rest and connection. For example, mornings often begin with yoga in the garden or on the spacious verandah. Meanwhile, cooling sea breezes and gentle natural sounds help set a peaceful tone for the day. Later, guests can relax by the pool, read beneath palm trees, or explore nearby beaches with soft sand and clear waters.

Island Living from Morning to Sunset

Life at Unawatuna Villa moves at an easy pace. During the day, guests can enjoy quiet moments in the garden or time in the sun by the pool. As the afternoon fades, the villa becomes a place for togetherness. Therefore, evenings are ideal for shared meals or relaxed barbecues beneath coconut palms. At the same time, the sky transforms with warm sunset colours over the ocean. As a result, conversations linger, laughter flows, and simple pleasures take centre stage.

Spacious Accommodation by the Sea

Unawatuna Villa features seven bedrooms arranged across two separate buildings. As a result, the layout offers both privacy and generous shared spaces. The main house includes three guest rooms, including one king bedroom and two twin rooms. In addition, shared living areas open directly onto the verandah, garden, and pool. Nearby, a separate guest wing houses four further bedrooms, each with a private ensuite bathroom. Furthermore, the villa sits next door to Bellini Blue, a smaller neighbouring property. When booked together, both villas provide an ideal solution for larger groups, retreats, or celebrations that require space without compromise.
