Grounds

With two acres of beautiful flower gardens, orchards, vegetable and herb gardens, goldfish pond and glorious views across Mevagissey harbour the gardens have been designed for guests to enjoy in complete privacy during their stay.

The croquet and cricket lawn is to the front of the house with a gazebo at one end of the lawn. A path leads you from the sun terrace past the front lawn and down towards the outdoor heated swimming pool (available from Easter weekend to the first week in October) which is accessed through a wooden gate. There are sun loungers set around either side of the pool and a table and chairs and a small charcoal BBQ built into the wall.

Behind Polpier you will find the all weather clay tennis court. There are a mixture of rackets and balls in the boot room, along with a croquet set.
