Indoor Areas

The living areas at Riverside Oasis Villa feature understated contemporary minimalism with a hint of opulence. Natural grey tones combined with the rustic quality of unpolished, rugged wooden furniture add to the charm of these spaces. Offering garden views and an exclusive evening-time warmth, the living areas are perfect for relaxation. An exercise machine stands in one of these spaces so you can get a workout in. Exposed concrete walls, bright flowers, and dark wood floors add to the allure of the living area. The dining pavilion is ideally suited for family meals and celebrations with a large dining table for all guests. You can choose to dine outdoors in the garden as well. For work trips, there is an upstairs office space fully equipped with a computer, file cabinet, desk, printer/scanner, and coat rack. Request the attentive staff to serve delicious dishes hand-picked from the villa menu.

Additional Features

The dedicated staff at Riverside Oasis Villa is here to make your stay all the more worthwhile and truly memorable. From organizing DJ pool parties to in-villa massages, the staff is happy to help. You can even indulge in a private yoga retreat along with your loved ones. Some services are charged additionally. The property manager is there to assist you during your stay.

Location

While you can spend your entire holiday basking under the tropical sun by your private pool, Chiang Mai has much to offer in terms of historical temples and Lanna architecture that it is worth exploring. The villa is nestled along the majestic Ping River which guarantees beautiful views. You can head over to Chiang Mai's Old City to sample delicacies and shop for exclusive wares.
