DESCRIPTION

Away from bustling Bridgetown, it's a place of sheer beauty that allows you to enjoy exactly what Barbados is meant for: relaxing. A spacious sea-facing terrace invites you to start your day with a morning coffee while soaking up views of the area's secluded azure bays and blooming bougainvillea bringing hummingbirds from afar. Here, you can dine al fresco and take advantage of direct access to a private plunge pool and an automatic sun and privacy shade. When you're not busy entertaining, stroll next door to The Cliff, a world-acclaimed restaurant and one of the island's very best.

Inside, you'll find 2,786 sq ft of luxurious living and breathing space. A calming colour palette of blue-greens and neutrals evokes a sense of serenity – the perfect antidote to busy modern life. Personal touches aplenty: local artists' work adorns the walls, complimented by intricate wooden carvings and furniture hand crafted by the property's owner.

Boasting a modern, airy design with an open-plan kitchen and lounge area, the apartment has been completely renovated for 2022 with all new furniture. The kitchen is well-equipped with all Miele appliances, a double fridge freezer, hob, dishwasher, Vitamix blender, espresso machine and marble worktops.

As the daylight fades, pull up a rattan bar stool and relax away the hours with your choice of a spectacularly well-stocked collection of spirits, including Barbados rum, gin, and Katspraddle vodka, as well as locally brewed beer from the likes of Banks and Dreadhop Brewing. Alternatively, kick back and relax with a movie in front of the property's 65-inch 4K smart TV, complete with everything you need for an evening of entertainment. The living area leads onto the terrace via a set of full width glass sliding doors, creating a seamless indoor and outdoor space.

Three bedrooms take inspiration from their coastal locale – each light and bright and decked out with subtle driftwood interiors and crisp linens. All are generous in size and include built-in wardrobes, ceiling fans, and air conditioning. Locally made sustainable toiletries add a luxe touch to each of the en-suite rooms.

Wake up feeling refreshed in the private master suite with a front-row seat to dreamy sea views and a spacious bathroom enhanced with his and hers sinks, a walk-in shower, and huge bath. Interiors elsewhere encompass stylishly minimalist decor: elegant travertine floors, scatter cushions, and plush upholstered furniture.

Outside, take a dip in the property's large freeform swimming pool before relaxing with a drink of your pick of sleek sun loungers. From the deck steps, you will have access to two idyllic golden sandy beaches offering perfect swimming and snorkelling conditions.

Elsewhere in the building, extensive facilities include a fully equipped gym and sauna. In addition, the property provides two assigned parking spaces, manned 24hr security, security cameras, and a security hut.
