DESCRIPTION

Villa Sol y Mar has been blessed with four stunning bedroom suites including the master bedroom. The master bedroom and one guest bedroom are located together while the other two guest bedrooms are found in the main building to their right. The bedrooms are furnished with king-sized beds, TVs, writing space and two of them have private balconies with stunning views while the other two have a daybed and a view of the garden, respectively! Each bedroom comes with an en-suite bathroom and the master bathroom even has a bathtub.

Sprawling over 1250 sq. mt. of land boasting an expansive tropical garden, the main villa can be reached via white, stone steps. The villa itself features a 13-metre infinity edge swimming pool, which is a great and lavish way spend sunrise and sunset, simply gazing at the beautiful panoramic vista. Stunning landscaping involves antique planters with luscious foliage, outdoor lighting to illuminate the corners once the sun goes down, and a traditional bale with a cushioned seat for a snugly corner to lounge in. You can even choose to spend your days sunbathing beside the pool on the deck chairs, as you bask in the glorious ambiance.

As you step onto the porch from the pool, there is a cozy seating corner for guests to relax on post-swim. Poolside, you will find the elegant and sunny living area at Villa Sol y Mar that has been designed keeping in mind the island-friendly vibe with shades of white and beige to keep the room bright and alive. The traditional along-along ceiling that soars high up in the sky adds the traditional element to the otherwise contemporary space. The room has been comfortably furnished with plush, white couches that are placed facing the sliding glass doors offering splendid views of the Indian Ocean.

The dining area comprises a six-seater dining table for enjoyable feasts with loved ones, especially since you can all eat together and catch up for good measure. The kitchen is open-plan and is fully-equipped with the best amenities and appliances for your culinary prowess!

A media room with a large TV and comfy couches is found as you enter through the main pavilion, so you get to indulge in late night movie-screenings with friends and family. There is a study as well, that is available to guests, in case you wish to get some work done!
