DESCRIPTION

The master suite at Villa Sungai Tinggi is situated in its own private pavilion, and is the largest room on the property. Firstly, the master bedroom is fully-furnished with a king-sized canopy bed, armchairs and other sitting spaces as well. The room is part of a large Bale as well, adding an authentic and exotic ambience to the entire room. The balcony offers an unobstructed view of Canggu's many beaches. The master suite also includes its own living area, well-furnished with ample couches and sofas. The en-suite bathroom is a magnificent open-air structure, made with the intention of providing the guests with a tropical experience. The stone bath is beautifully located in the corner and a pebbled floor enhances the Balinese experience.

There are three guest bedrooms on the property and each of the rooms is furnished with king-sized beds. All the rooms are decorated with the same traditional style, exuding rich Balinese hospitality and comforts. There is enough sitting space in the rooms itself and each room has its own private en-suite bathroom with large soaking tubs. All the rooms are easily connected to the great outdoors, so you can step right out into the gardens without a worry!

Villa Sungai Tinggi is a beach-front villa that sits facing the limitless water, which you have the luxury to observe endlessly right from the comforts of the villa. The lavish swimming pool, functions as an infinity pool offering panoramic views of the beaches that surround the villa on all sides. Nestled between polished and landscaped gardens, overflowing with tropical plants and trees, the swimming pool is accompanied by numerous sun loungers placed under umbrellas, to give you an ideal spot to rest or catch some sleep after a refreshing dip in the pool. Natural and scenic beauty is plentiful in the villa itself, with a lake and fishponds on the property which you can walk over via the wooden platform, and take in the beautiful imagery of the untamed landscape. The pool deck itself is quite grand with ample sitting space for your rest on. There is a traditional Bale towards the ends of the garden, offering a shaded area for some meditation or yoga. You can spend hours exploring the land itself, without feeling the need to step out the villa!

The living and dining area is located under a traditional Balinese Bale with thatched roofs as the entire villa is a rich and glorious amalgamation of traditional Balinese culture with a contemporary style of living. The living room is an opulent space furnished with extra-plush couches and numerous armchairs placed all around the room for utmost comfort. Decorated in a traditional style, the room also houses a fully-stocked bar, and makes for a perfect way to end the evening. As the Bale is open from all sides, it provides you the chance to observe the quiet and picturesque surrounding from where you sit. There is a large dining table placed in the Bale, which can seat more than ten people quite comfortably and without a hassle.

The kitchen is located at a distance from the area and is fully-equipped with modern amenities and basic facilities. The staff is all too glad to serve you with the best meals.
