The room opens out to the stunning veranda by the pool through full length glass doors. This also makes the room very airy and lets in lot of natural light. The two bedrooms of the villa are set in a separate pavilion near the main pavilion. The second bedroom is much like the first but it has twin beds and is perfect for friends or kids. The full length glass doors open out to the infinity pool. The private balconies open into the gorgeous views of the ocean and greenery making it look like a painting rather than a glass door. The room also has writing desks and chairs, cabinets and lots of closet space. The private en suite bathrooms are al fresco and are complete with monsoon rain showers and sinks.

The outdoor verandas gardens of the villa look over the stunning view of hilltops and lush greenery. It has a beautiful terrace that looks out to this stunning view. You can also relax on the sun loungers by the pool. The pool is visible from all rooms of the villa.

The living area has plush beige couches, a stylish beige coffee table that goes beautifully with the white walls and floor. It opens into the beautiful veranda by the infinity pool. The living area also has comfy bean bags for extra seating. The villa has a second upstairs living room which is very elegant and lovely. This living room opens into the balcony with a stunning view.
