DESCRIPTION

Featuring a spacious open plan design that flows from entrance to stunning views of the turquoise bay below, this elegant condo is everything you could dream of for your most memorable holiday experience. With an open plan design that leads to the extensive double balcony stretching across both the living and dining areas to ensure the view is front and centre no matter your location, this ultra modern condo is sleek and sexy with air-conditioning throughout and state of the art kitchen and entertainment facilities to keep you connected while also refreshingly unplugged.

The master bedroom opens directly onto the spacious balcony and gorgeous ocean views and features a walk in closet and a large en suite with tub bath, rain shower and double vanity that can be accessed from two entrances in the room.

The apartment is light and airy throughout with three additional bedrooms in the main apartment all with en suites of varying sizes and lots of closet space.

There is a fifth detached guest cottage with a small kitchenette and living/dining area which can be accessed from the ground floor, as well as the apartment, and offers an excellent option for visiting guests who require a little more privacy.

The stunning white sand beach and crystal clear waters of Paynes Bay is only a few footsteps away via a tranquil walkway and secure gate with key entry. Enjoy lazy days under the beach umbrellas soaking up the rays and take in the stunning sunsets while sipping sundowners before heading out to one of the many world class restaurants on the coast. Should you want to explore the island during the day just reach out to our concierge team who will be happy to assist you with whatever your need to ensure you experience the best the island has to offer.

For larger groups The One at The St. James and The Villa at The St. James can be booked together to make a great ten bedroom vacation rental option.
