The Pines

A sensational abode that sparkles like a gem in the tropical paradise of Phuket is what guests can come to expect of The Pines. Here in the turquoise waters of the Andaman Sea that is a favorite tourist island destination, it is not hard to spot and single out The Pines in its stylish and contemporary Thai architecture and design. Conceptualized as an ultimate beachfront holiday home for guests, this residence epitomizes chic relaxation and simplicity with the abundant use of wood for its high-beam ceilings, interior walls and structure, and the furnishings.

DESCRIPTION

The 5 bedrooms at The Pines are minimalistic in furnishings and decor, allowing the exquisite wood feature that dominate all of its space, characterise the overall personality. Lovely sofas are tastefully placed around the rooms to enhance the ambiance of warmth, and to keep guests contented relaxing on them while staring out from the floor-to-ceiling glass windows to marvel at the excellent seaview and waves lapping gently on the shoreline. The rooms are equipped with ensuite bathrooms with all the amenities and modern trappings of a respectable villa, and the tiled design too reflects just that.

The outdoor area of The Pines is an oasis and sanctuary of greenery with manmade pond lotuses and other floating water plants on both sides. A concrete path spanning the width of the pond has been built for guests to walk across.

It is here in the outdoors too that a blissful-looking, azure swimming pool entices you for a swim or dip. Large sundeck chairs are positioned next to the pool for a nice slumber or to simply laze about with a book or drink. Alfresco dining is also provided for, atop the wooden table and chairs so guests could opt to do so on pleasant days while catching a breezy whiff of the sea. The shady setting of the tall pine groves provides a perfect respite for guests even if they decide to sunbathe or get a nice tan.

Compatible to the large outdoors that enable ample repose is the equally spacious indoors here at The Pines. The very eye-catching kitchen area and living hall are fully decked out in wood, from the wall panelling to the high ceilings. The fully-equipped kitchen has a full length kitchen island in glossy marble table top so that guests have the space and enough inspiration to prepare and create their delicious meals, or linger around the bar stools over conversations. The exquisite dining table made of a very huge slab of wood makes all day dining a delightful affair.

Guests would also enjoy relaxing by the custom-made long sofa and couch with plush cushions, while a wooden coffee table complete the overall furnishings. Wifi Internet access is provided for guests to keep everyone happy and connected.
