DESCRIPTION

Built in two main, connected through an arch, volumes and through a large terrace and garden paths, this property is an excellent option that provides plenty of space for up to 18 guests to spread around the house and gardens comfortably. The location, taste and colors of the property built in a unique and fascinating landscape on the rolling hills of Kilada, perfectly match pure Tuscany charms. The interior of the villa, which was completed in 2021, was built to high modern standards. The wooden high ceilings, spacious bedrooms and carefully handpicked unique pieces of furniture keep a warmth ambiance alive, while the living experience, dominated by pastel colors and contrasted by inspiring art complete a tasteful home inspired by its owners. Designed to offer a superb living experience, the large outdoor terraces are the heart and soul of this haven, generously providing numerous sitting and lounging corners for the ultimate relaxation. The entire estate is very well taken care of and great emphasis has been given to the neat and tidy maintenance, from the smallest detail in the interiors to the outdoor sitting areas under the locust trees and around the pool. The design of the villa together with the multitude of indoor and outdoor living spaces as well as the abundant number of bedrooms, enable a truly independent and comfortable stay for smaller or larger groups. Offering all the right ingredients for the ultimate casual summer living, this beautiful property awaits to be discovered.
