DESCRIPTION

Amanzi is the Zulu word for water, an element whose restorative properties prevail within and around the villa: cool down in the 15-metre infinity-edge pool, enjoy a soothing massage to the sound of ocean waves or take a refreshing soak in the bathtub of the two master suites. The cool tranquillity is further enhanced by the trickling stone waterfall feature and koi-pond garden to the rear of the villa's living and dining room.

A holiday at Villa Amanzi could be spent in complete peace simply lounging on the comfortably furnished terrace, indulging in some in-villa spa treatments, or taking a morning stroll along the soft sands of Kata Noi Beach, a mere 10-minute walk away. The villa's top-notch entertainment system, modern kitchen, barbecue sala and glorious setting make it a charming venue for a getaway with friends too. Sports enthusiasts can play table tennis or pool within the villa, visit the estate clubhouse for its tennis court and fitness centre, or book a round at one of Phuket's top golf courses.

Villa Amanzi allows convenience to seniors and those who are mobility challenged, with a lift connecting the two main floors. Flexible bed configurations, and a good selection of kids' equipment make it a hit with large families. The ultra-private downstairs bedroom suite is attached to a TV lounge room with a rollaway sofa bed, while a cosy room on the top floor could serve as a multi-purpose room for massages or as a playroom for kids.

Among Villa Amanzi's staff is a charming and knowledgeable English-speaking manager, a housekeeping and service team, and 24-hour estate security. Meals chosen from a menu of mainly Thai dishes are prepared by your private chef, while more dining and leisure choices are just a short distance away at Kata Noi and Kata beaches.

Spread over three levels, with spacious outdoor living areas and a pool extending from the middle level, Villa Amanzi is designed to maximise on the sea views. The villa's entrance is on the top floor, along with a covered parking space, foyer, first master suite and two guest bedrooms. Descending via the lift or the wide staircase brings you to the large living and dining rooms that open onto the pool terrace and barbecue sala. The second master suite and another guest bedroom are also on this floor, while the fourth guest bedroom and adjacent TV lounge are found on the lower floor. Another staircase from the dining area leads down to the kitchen.

A huge bathtub adds a touch of luxury to the large ensuite bathroom.

MASTER SUITE 2

Located on the middle floor, this king-bedded suite is ideal for guests who will enjoy being close to the villa's main entertainment areas. Superb views unfold beyond the floor-to-ceiling windows along the front of the bedroom, and in the decadent ensuite bathroom there's alcove seating overlooking the garden and a freestanding tub for relaxing
