

Luxury Villa Living

Villa Babar

Villa Babar is a stunning, two-level vacation residence that highlights contemporary minimalist luxury. With a predominant colour scheme of white stone, interiors are appointed with large, classy, more functional furnishings, as well as sparsely decorated with huge artworks, wood carvings and tribal pieces. Amenities are expectedly of hotel and resort standard - to offer each and every guest sheer satisfaction and recreation. Erected on a headland with enviable views of majestic mountains on one side and the wide, open sea on another, Villa Babar gives you a feel of, literally and figuratively, high-end, sophisticated travel living.

DESCRIPTION

The villa has six spacious bedrooms. Three of these bedrooms are on the villa's upper level. Two of these bedrooms have king-sized beds, while one other bedroom has double king-sized beds. All three upper-level bedrooms have dedicated bathrooms. Two of these are open-air bathrooms with bathtubs, while one is an indoor bathroom with double rain showers. Three other bedrooms are on the villa's ground level. Two of these bedrooms have twin beds, while one other bedroom has a king-sized bed. All three ground-level bedrooms have dedicated, garden bathrooms with rain showers. One of these bathrooms, however, also has a bathtub.

The property's sprawling garden of well-maintained lawn – with traditional figures, a large pond and a helipad – ends at the edge of a cliff. Laid out here – following the contour of the land – is the 27-meter infinity pool. Dive into its mesmerizing, glassy waters for your routine laps, or for some aimless wading as you look out to the Indian Ocean. Or, pull everyone in for some splashy fun and games. For a breather, laze on cushioned, carved wood pool beds partially covered by large umbrellas on the poolside stone deck.

On the breezy, semi-open, spacious and high-ceilinged ground level of the villa is the living area with its hefty and long couches. Here, you can all hang out to mingle and mix. On one end of the ground level is the dining area. On its long, solid wood table that can comfortably seat up to 18, you can all sample authentic Balinese cuisine, your most-requested comfort food, as well as customized courses meticulously prepared by the onsite chef – using locally-sourced, seasonal ingredients – at the fully-equipped designer kitchen perpendicular to the dinner table. On the other end of the ground level is a lounge and billiards room where you can either spend some me time, or compete for, at the very least, a few bragging rights. On the single-level wing of the villa is the media room where you can all catch the highly-anticipated new episode of the latest blockbuster series. Or, relive the drama of your most beloved classic movie.

Assigned to attend to the day-to-day services is a staff headed by a manager backed by the chef, a gardener, a pool attendant as well as by butlers and security personnel. A babysitter, a laundry helper and a spa therapist may, upon your request, be called in. Their services, however, will be charged separately. A chauffeur-driven car is included in your booking. Bike, scooter, boat, and helicopter rentals are available.
