DESCRIPTION

Villa Bowen dates back to 1800 and is also one of the residences of historical interest. Located in the heart of Sicily, in Caltanissetta, it will enchant you as soon as you step through its gate. It is possible to fall in love with this place. The villa is surrounded by a large, lush gardens with wonderful Mediterranean plants and trees and has a swimming pool and relaxation area, a pool pavilion with dining area and an outdoor living garden pavilion.

The entire property, which also includes an adjacent building and a park, is under video surveillance to ensure maximum security and privacy for guests.

The historic house was built in the second half of the 19th century and has since been restored while preserving its original beauty. Every detail catches the eye and puts guests in a unique and pleasantly discreet setting.

The charming garden and the beautiful swimming pool, where you can read a book, relax or enjoy your privacy, as well as the shared spaces, which can be customised and personalised, provide the ideal setting for social, cultural or business gatherings.

The entire residence has a total of 20 beds, in the main house there are 6 bedrooms with 11 beds, while in the adjacent building there are 4 double rooms with 8 beds. All rooms are equipped with services dedicated to those who appreciate design, as they are cared for in every way to guarantee an exclusive stay in a charming atmosphere.

The location of the villa, in the centre of Sicily, allows you to stay in a point of the island that offers the great privilege of being able to visit places of significant historical and artistic interest in a short time. The archaeological sites of Agrigento, the marvellous mosaics of the Roman villa in Piazza Armerina, Norman Palermo, the precious historical centres of Trapani, Ortigia, Syracuse, Catania and the other countless Sicilian beauties are just as close as the sea and its coasts or the surprising and picturesque territory of the hinterland of Caltanissetta.

After returning from any excursion, Villa Bowen awaits you with its quiet and elegant atmosphere to welcome you in an environment where you can enjoy unique moments of relaxation or sharing.
