DESCRIPTION

Villa Bunting sleeps up to 14 guests, featuring three bedrooms inside the main house and two separate outhouses featuring one double room and twin room each. The suites inside the main building are done up in charming whites and baby pinks, with dried flowers hanging above the bed-heads.

Each suite features its own state-of-the-art bathroom with power showers and large basins. The common space includes a kitchen with all necessary utensils and dining tables lined up against a glass wall which offers breath-taking views over the shimmering pool and surrounding grounds.

The wooden decking between the pool and the house is kitted out with plush sunbeds for all the guests, and umbrellas for those who want to steal a bit of shade. The separate outhouses are equally as gorgeous and offer even more privacy, with their own private entrances and balconies overlooking the sea. The balconies are complete with small tables offering unbeatable views and making the perfect place to enjoy breakfast or an evening sundowner.

As the Retreat is located in the Setubal area, there is much to explore and enjoy, and as always our trusted concierge service is on hand to help with whatever you desire. Choose from delicious wine tours, hikes through the luscious green hills, rides on the beach, and bikes through the vines. Surfing, diving and oyster tours can also be arranged!

In the words of Epicurus, 'the goal of all acts is a serene and blissful state of mind', and serenity will certainly be achieved when staying at Villa Bunting.
