Outdoors

The villa's real jewel, however, is the heavenly private swimming pool, reached by a stone staircase down from the shady terraces. Flanked by numerous sun beds and parasols, it's a scene befitting of paradise. The adjacent lawn is the perfect place for children to play against the mountainous backdrop of the Serra de Tramuntana, a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Combined with meticulously landscaped gardens and a separate cottage serving as a playroom filled with toys and games, Villa Butternut near Pollença is arguably the most luxurious setting for a holiday in northern Mallorca.
