Beautiful Tuscan Gardens

A long private driveway leads through cypress and pine trees before reaching the castle. This impressive approach sets the scene for the historic property.

On arrival, guests are welcomed by a beautiful front garden and private parking. A separate rose garden provides an elegant setting for alfresco dining.

The gardens offer plenty of space to relax and enjoy the peaceful Tuscan surroundings. Mature trees and established planting also add to the property's sense of privacy.

The surrounding area combines medieval hilltop villages with rolling green countryside and beautiful coastal scenery. As a result, guests can enjoy both cultural experiences and relaxing days by the sea.

The island of Elba is also within reach. The island is famous for its connection to Napoleon, who lived there during his exile.

History enthusiasts can explore the ancient Etruscan tombs at Populonia and Baratti. These fascinating archaeological sites offer another glimpse into the region's distant past.

Discover Tuscany's Wine and Cuisine

The area surrounding Villa Castillo is also renowned for its high-quality wine production. This makes the property an excellent base for guests who want to explore Tuscany through its food and wine.
