Villa Conigilo – Contemporary Wine Estate Retreat Near Mount Etna

The Property

Villa Conigilo is an exceptional contemporary estate set within a sustainable 16-hectare wine estate near Mount Etna, Sicily. Surrounded by vineyards, ancient palm groves, and dramatic volcanic landscapes, the villa offers a unique blend of modern luxury and authentic Sicilian character.

Located in one of the closest villages to Europe's most active volcano, the property enjoys a privileged setting between Mount Etna and the beautiful coastline of Giardini Naxos. Guests can reach the sandy beaches in around 20 minutes, while the historic town of Taormina is just 30 minutes away.

Designed to harmonise with its natural surroundings, Villa Conigilo provides a peaceful retreat where contemporary comfort meets the rich heritage of eastern Sicily.

Interiors

The villa showcases a refined New Mediterranean design inspired by the region's history, culture, and natural beauty. Every detail has been carefully considered to create a sophisticated yet welcoming atmosphere.

Natural materials, elegant lines, and layered textures define the interiors. Lava stone elements pay tribute to the volcanic landscape, while contemporary furnishings add warmth and comfort throughout the property.

The home offers a sensory experience that reflects the surrounding environment, combining modern architecture with traditional Sicilian influences. Guests can enjoy spacious living areas designed for relaxation, socialising, and taking in the beauty of the estate.

A stylish island kitchen creates the perfect setting for cooking classes and shared dining experiences, while a private wine cellar allows guests to discover and enjoy local wines produced on the estate.
