DESCRIPTION

Lisbon Coast Luxury Villa Overview

This Lisbon Coast luxury villa faces the Atlantic Ocean and is available for rentals of four nights minimum. It sits on the main coastal road linking Cascais to Guincho Beach, placing guests near Portugal's famous Riviera seafront. Furthermore, it is ideal for those seeking a relaxing break with plenty of activities nearby.

History & Design

Dating back to 1923, Villa Crane combines historical elegance with modern comfort. The owners have carefully refurbished the property while preserving its original charm. Noble wood-paneled floors and ceilings, an opulent central staircase, large panoramic windows, and shaded terraces provide stunning sea views.

Ground Floor Living Areas

The ground floor offers spacious living areas, including a winter sitting room with fireplace and a summer sitting room that opens onto a terrace. A modern, well-equipped kitchen with a central work island connects to a large dining room. A TV room, hexagonal entrance hall, and guest WC complete this level.

Bedrooms & Bathrooms

Villa Crane has six bedrooms, each with a private or en-suite bathroom, plus a children's playroom in the basement.

Ground Floor: Double bedroom with garden and pool views and en-suite bath (handheld shower).

First Floor: Large double bedroom with ocean views, twin bedroom with ocean views, double bedroom with en-suite shower, shared terrace, and a master suite with dressing room, marble bathroom (bath with handheld shower, separate shower, double basins), and electric blinds.

Attic: Massive twin bedroom with en-suite shower, ideal for children.

Basement & Additional Facilities

The basement includes a children's playroom with toys, a laundry room, staff quarters, and garage.

Outdoor Living & Pool

The villa is surrounded by a lawn garden and features a swimming pool at the rear, which can be heated and illuminated at night. The terraces provide multiple spaces to relax, dine, or enjoy the sea views.

Activities & Local Attractions

Guests can enjoy a cycling, walking, and running path that passes directly in front of the villa and extends to Guincho Beach. The area offers sailing, golf, tennis, horse riding, surfing, kite-surfing, and paddleboarding. Cascais town centre is a short walk away, while Estoril, Sintra, and Lisbon are within easy reach.

Additional Services

Cook service is available on request, with options ranging from half-board to full-board. The villa also features Wi-Fi and modern appliances throughout.
