Villa Daffodil

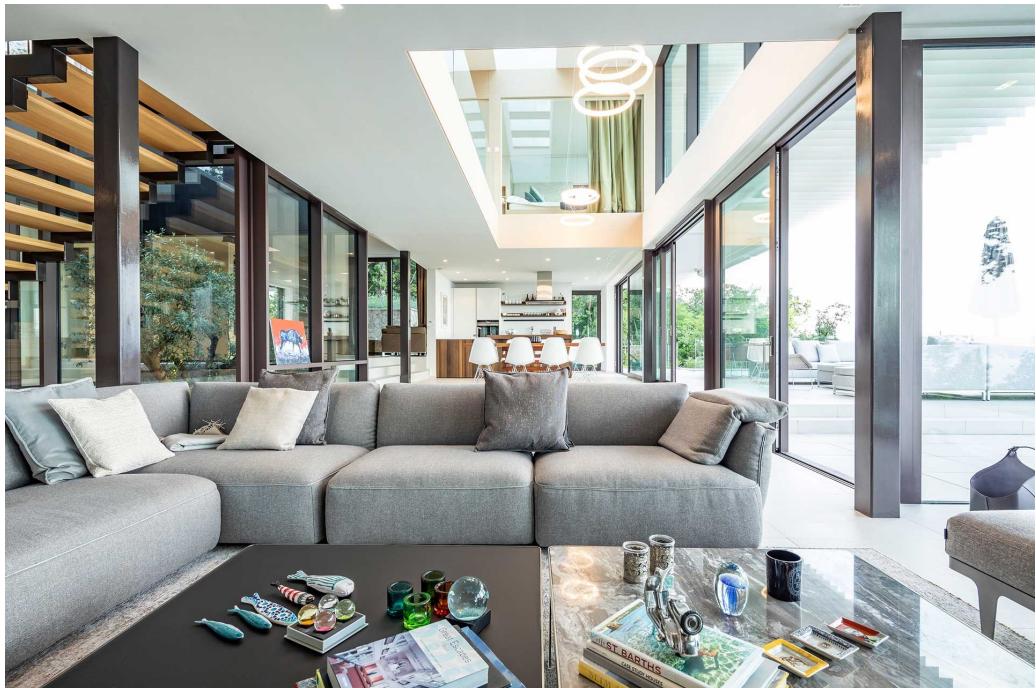

If you're looking for a luxury villa with a view, then you won't get much better than Villa Daffodil. Bold and beautiful this property not only brings the outside in with floor-to-ceiling windows, but it is also an amazing work of architecture, too. Graciously proportioned the villa is distributed over 3 levels. The layout helps to give shape to a variety of outdoor areas and the slender design of the villa takes the greatest advantage of celebrating a natural dialogue with its surroundings.

DESCRIPTION

The main floor - ground floor - offers the main entrance to the villa, gorgeous open-air living and dining areas with a state of the art kitchen, fireplace, sauna, exercise room, media room and one ensuite bedroom. Incredible architecture combined with simple interiors proves to be a winning combination at Villa Daffodil. As the views to the sea are so inspiring, huge terraces are a key feature of the property. There is no better place to be at sunset than sipping a cocktail on a terrace while admiring unobstructed sea views.

Four comfortable bedrooms located on the top floor, which is accessed by an internal staircase, will provide peaceful darkness for night sleep but let the sunshine in the rest of the time. When you wake up each morning refreshed and relaxed, your whole day is already off to a great start.

The swimming pool level, which is on the lower ground floor, is a perfect place for those chill summer days and can be accessed from both sides of the villa by an external staircase. On this level, you have as well an outdoor kitchen plus an extra bathroom.

Medveja town, with its seafront location and famous two kilometer long pebble beach, is a nature lover's dream and very family-friendly place. If you love gardens filled with Mediterranean plants and fresh country air, small towns on the eastern coast are as picturesque as they are relaxing.
