DESCRIPTION

Dahlia has large private swimming pool with overflow, shaped green spaces planted with Mediterranean vegetation, large terraces and outdoor living areas with pergolas. The traditional Cycladic architecture of material and shapes influenced the residence's aesthetic and the functional layout of villa's interior and exterior areas.

The furnishing follows simple, minimal lines, meeting the needs of modern living, while respecting the morphological requirements of Mykonos, creating a homely environment, quiet and lovely, perfect for a memorable vacation.
