DESCRIPTION

An extensive outdoor terrace makes sure no corner remains without capturing the essence of the panorama. The infinity pool enjoys a front row position being directly overlooked by a minimal sunbathing area and a large pergola that covers the stylish lounge and dining areas as well as a small outdoor kitchen. An elegant wooden dining table provides seating for ten guests while a built-in couch, summer chairs and sofa provide all the comfort necessary to make the most of the moments spent outdoors.

The property's living room could be seen as an indoor extension of the front terrace given its orientation towards the sea and the plenitude of French doors spilling onto the pool terrace. Aged parquet stretches throughout this space that includes the indoor dining area - with sufficient space for ten guests - and the airy sitting area with wooden coffee table and cozy cushions. The villa's fully equipped kitchen - entirely surfaces in the traditional cimentogonia - enjoys a lateral position and opens up onto the outdoor dining area. The interior decor throughout the villa is a marvellous take on minimal furnishing and natural elements, a discerning taste shown through the unique Paola Navone furniture and original artefacts displayed with style.

This property is a truly rare combination of top features with a location just above the most representative beach of Mykonos' nature, an inspired architecture and interior design in addition to a comfort second to none. Villa Dance is a definite choice for those who wish to experience the natural side of Mykonos and understand the true roots of the island's charm.
