DESCRIPTION

There are four bedrooms at Villa Dream View including the garden master suite which leads you to the terrace upstairs. There is a media lounge with ample seating and flat-screen TV. The remaining three bedrooms are found upstairs adjoined to the sunset terrace which offers resplendent views of palm trees and the ocean.

The bedrooms are well-designed with comfortable king-sized beds beside minimal décor for a welcoming vibe. While two bedrooms enjoy en-suite bathrooms, the remaining two bedrooms upstairs share a bathroom making them ideal for a family.

In front of the two-storey Villa Dream View, you have well-kept gardens with striking green grass that is separated by ocean views through a fence. Lush tropical vegetation surrounds the 10-metre swimming pool which takes centre stage and is the perfect way to relax in the morning. Enjoy a hearty breakfast by the poolside on the alfresco dining area or laze on the hammock and read a book or even take an indulgent nap. There is a furnished sunset terrace upstairs attached to the bedrooms as well.

The open-concept and open-plan living area at Villa Dream View in Uluwatu is cheerful and bright owing to the natural light and vibrant décor. From indoor plants to pops of colour, the living area is surely easygoing and invites you to relax. Comfortably furnished so you can easily crash on the sofa and rest, the living area is separated by the garden and pool only through sliding glass doors. The room is spacious and well-designed so it is even family-friendly where kids and grown-ups can each enjoy their own space.

Also, part of the living room is occupied by the indoor dining area that features unique bench seating along a solid wood dining table. It can easily accommodate all guests for comfortable and memorable meals with loved ones. Just through the open doorway, one can make their way to the fully-equipped villa kitchen. It even enjoys its own entrance where you have the alfresco dining area. The kitchen features state of the art appliances, water dispenser, a breakfast bar with seating and built-in oven. Pendant lights hang overhead for a modern touch to a simplistic room.
