DESCRIPTION

Historic Grandeur at Villa Elaenia

Villa Elaenia sits on a high plateau overlooking the majestic Douro River. This historic vineyard villa enjoys outstanding views of the monumental canyons below. Originally built in the 17th century, the property is steeped in rich Portuguese history. Recent renovations have added modern comforts to this ancient building. Here, the past and present come together in perfect harmony. The spacious estate works perfectly for large family gatherings or corporate groups. You will find plenty of room to gather together or hide away in a secluded corner.

Sophisticated Suites and Character Rooms

The sleeping quarters at this magnificent home offer ultimate comfort and privacy. Villa Elaenia features six elegant bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bathroom. Most rooms enjoy sweeping views of the river and surrounding vineyards. Three ground-floor bedrooms offer direct access to the lush exterior gardens. Inside, you will find two separate sitting rooms for different moods. The main lounge features panoramic windows to soak in the landscape. A smaller sitting room includes a fireplace and a card table for cooler evenings.

The villa offers unique facilities that celebrate its winemaking heritage. Guests can exercise in the gym, located in the original stone grape-treading troughs. For entertainment, the estate features a private padel court, a snooker table, and table tennis. The authentic wine cellar provides a special setting for celebratory dinners. It still features traditional earthen floors to maintain the perfect temperature. Every detail reflects the soul of the Douro Valley.

Culinary Delights and Vineyard Experiences

A stay at Villa Elaenia includes a fresh breakfast prepared daily. You can also request a private chef to prepare traditional local meals for your group. The estate produces its own table wines, which guests must taste during their stay. We also offer a range of extra services on request. These include grocery delivery, laundry service, and airport transfers. You can even book relaxing spa treatments without leaving the property.

The Douro Valley is a UNESCO World Heritage site and a peaceful haven. You can enjoy vineyard walks, picnics, or boat trips along the river. During the autumn harvest, guests can even participate in traditional grape treading. The region offers incredible gastronomy and historic train rides through the mountains. In summary, this property provides a perfect combination of historic charm, modern luxury, and authentic vineyard living. It is a true gem for travelers seeking an unforgettable Portuguese escape.
