The villa is all-natural in every aspect: abundant natural light invading from the numerous floor-to-ceiling windows, natural wood and straw decorations and furnishings, smooth cement surfaces in light grey and beige, white walls, natural stone ottomans, baboo details and soft earthy tones. The upper level, right at the entrance of the property, features a vast living room with sizable sofa and rough wooden furniture as well as an open-plan, ultra-minimal kitchen, dining area and a small bar with high stools and views to the outside. The window-doors of this space open to the pool terrace providing stunning views both to the shimmering pool and the crystalline sea.
