DESCRIPTION

The vast residence, designed by the prestigious ISV architects, sprawls on the hillside alongside 4000 square meters within an untouched landscape, connecting it to the unspoiled surroundings and allowing guests to embrace the Greek way of life.

This stunning, exclusive split-level 550sqm villa is nestled in the hillside atop its secluded beach and offers guests an unforgettable stylish, and serene haven. Whether inside or outside, there are lots of places to relax. There is an al fresco-shaded dining table on the spacious sun-kissed terrace and a glistening infinity pool surrounded by two lounge areas. Gather under the pergola-covered lounge or around the open-air dining table to enjoy a family dinner or time with friends. There are several sitting areas across the property for moments when you wish for extra privacy.

Inside, all seven beautifully appointed en-suite bedrooms, six with double beds, and one twin room offer unobstructed sea views and stylish island-themed decor of natural materials and shades of grey. All bedrooms have glass doors leading out to sun-drenched balconies. White walls and polished concrete floors create a light and airy atmosphere, perfectly combined with minimal interiors and luxury linens.

The kitchen is sleek and designed in all-white. The gourmet kitchen is perfect for entertaining guests or creating the ideal gathering space before moving to the spacious open-plan living and dining area with sweeping stairs leading up to the suites. The villa's main living room features a gorgeous energy fireplace, overlooks the Aegean Sea, and is perfect for indoor and outdoor living. Stepping outside the large glass doors leading outside, guests will enjoy a wooden dining area that can comfortably host up to 14 people.

You will be treated like royalty by the villa's in-house team: the Cook, the maid, and the butler of the property will ensure that you have exactly what your heart desires around the clock. The staff resides in a separate section of the villa featuring a kitchen where dining is prepared, a separate dining and living area, and two bedrooms for the staff.

Villa Eucalyptus offers everything you need for a relaxing break in style, but there are plenty of things to do in the immediate area. If you leave the villa's secluded beach, less than 100 meters away is a water sports facility and a beach bar. Skiathos port is less than 4 mins away from the villa, making arrivals and departures an absolute breeze.
