DESCRIPTION

Surrounded by nothing but beatific calm, this enchanting mansion boasts a swimming pool provided with sunbeds and umbrellas to provide shade and protection from the high temperatures typical of this sun-drenched region. Near the pool, the external environment is embellished by a lovely covered pergola where guests can enjoy an al fresco dinner to celebrate relaxing vacation nights, always in the tranquil atmosphere created by this bucolic panorama.

Since the first step through the entrance, guests can perceive the real Apulian authenticity in the deep bond between the surrounding territory, the history, and the architecture of this charming manor dating back to the eighteenth century. This unique and traditional estate features a fully equipped kitchen with wooden beams completed by a marvelous dining room, harmoniously designed following the concept of open space and highlighted by wicker chandeliers. Adjacent to the large table, there is a convenient kitchen counter to have breakfast or a quick lunch, comfortably sitting on the wooden stools.

The six elegant bedrooms are designed to guarantee every kind of comfort, starting from the air conditioning to the heated floor. The natural light, pouring through the floor-to-ceiling windows with sunrays bouncing around the rooms, warmly floods and enlightens the classic interiors. Each bedroom is brimming with Apulian vibes and takes plenty of inspiration from the local design, even though every night space succeeds in showing a unique personality and is distinguished by evocative names. The three bedrooms Ulivo, Malva, and Melograno are located inside the main building. Ulivo and Malva are completed by a private terrace, ideal for spending pleasant moments with a good reading in complete relaxation. Melograno boasts an internal living room enhanced by a suggestive fireplace and a cozy sofa for the chilliest nights indoors. Spacious and bright, they guarantee the comfort of a luxury style that combines classic features with modern furnishings.

The original stone of the internal walls, the exposed wooden beams, and the floor in chianche fill the interiors with a rustic and genuine character. The bedrooms Mirto, Limone, and Mandorlo are located in the guest house, restored carefully preserving the original structure, with barrel vaults and stone arches. These rooms open onto the internal courtyard and the surrounding countryside. With an enchanting view over the garden, these elegant rooms allow a total immersion in the nature that surrounds the whole majestic property. Feel enchanted by silence and tranquility dominating over this mansion. The ideal refuge for those refined travelers seeking a quiet vacation full of wellness treatments to finally find peace of mind.
