DESCRIPTION

Beautifully restored in 2021, this high end vacation home comprises the main villa and two guest houses, accommodating up to 22 guests in its 9 bedrooms. Three hectares of private land surround the villa with its olive trees making the property an idyllic corner.

The house is well integrated into the bucolic landscape, nestled among the rolling hills, olive groves, and vineyards. The countryside imbues peace and tranquillity from all around the estate, guests of Forrester will enjoy a real sense of harmony and well-being in touch with nature.

Within this context, this exclusive holiday accommodation ensures the utmost comfort. The simplicity and minimalism of the furnishings make this villa easy to live in, particularly perfect for large family reunions with children of every age. Villa Salice is also the ideal location to host weddings venues, as for its large outdoor spaces and numerous bedrooms.

The outdoors offers various corners, terraces, and courtyards furnished for moments of relaxation, offering private moments by the rest of the group, immersed in such a natural beauty. The pergola, furnished with a table for up to twenty guests, faces the infinity pool and is built in the direction of the sunset.

An outdoor corner is reserved for table tennis, while another is equipped with a barbecue perfect for enjoying delectable and genuine al fresco meals.

It is possible to take pleasant walks along beautiful country roads from the villa and enjoy long promenades immersed in such stunning nature.

Located in the Tuscan hillside between Florence and Siena, Villa Forrester is the perfect private getaway for a large family or group of friends, providing a supremely comfortable base to discover Tuscany while enjoying a holiday of blissful relaxation and Italian authenticity.
