VILLA GATES

Luxury Villa Living

Villa Gates

This large Italian holiday villa lies on the borders of the Tyrrhenian Sea, along the Tuscan coast. Luxury details in the ten bedrooms and in the living areas give this 18th-century villa a homely and refined atmosphere, with large living rooms connected to one another following the original internal layout of antique residential palaces.

Set on the northern side of Monte Argentario, in the province of Grosseto, this elegant vacation rental, Villa Gates, dominates the coast from the promontory that borders the waters with its impressive dimension, surrounded by four hectares of private park.

DESCRIPTION

Mediterranean plants, palms cypresses and ancient olive trees create various shaded corners, lovely spots thoughtfully furnished for relaxing privately from the rest of the group, admiring the sea from different perspectives. A small courtyard covered in walls of rambling flowers and plants is the ideal place to enjoy breakfast, with a continuously sprouting orange tree serving as a natural shade over the dining table.

The swimming pool area is the perfect spot to enjoy the turquoise sea, stretching the views to the magnificent Monte Argentario and the Tuscan Archipelago islands like Giglio and Montecristo, admiring spectacular Italian sunsets. Montalcino, Pitigliano, and Saturnia hot springs are all within an easy reach, approximately one hour drive from the property. Villa Gates, immersed in nature and sheltered by the beautiful promontory, is located only six hundred meters from the highway exit.

The nearest beach can be reached within five minutes walking along a pathway that leads directly to the small rocky beach; the closest equipped rocky beach is located in Talamone only ten minutes driving.

Several stunning beaches such as Cala Martina and Cala Violina are part of a protected nature reserve and are located approximately one hour drive from the estate making them the perfect destination for a day trip.

The villa staff lives in the same building of the villa, totally respectful of the guests' privacy.

Villa Gates is the ideal holiday destination for anyone seeking relaxation and wanting to appreciate a corner of the world, the Tuscan coast, where spectacular natural sceneries, history and art come together to create a timeless place.
